

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
DIVISION OF DOMESTIC RELATIONS
MEDINA COUNTY, OHIO

CASE NO. _____

(_____)

Plaintiff/Petitioner-1 vs.

JUDGE MARY R. KOVACK

AGREED JUDGMENT ENTRY TO MODIFY RESIDENTIAL PARENT FOR SCHOOL

Defendant/Petitioner-2

The Parties requested that the Court issue an Order modifying the designation of residential parent for school purposes in their Shared Parenting Plan. The parties agree that no other modifications of the Plan are necessary. Parties waived service of this motion and requested that the motion be considered in a non-oral hearing at the Court's earliest convenience.

NAMES AND BIRTHDATES OF THE CHILDREN AFFECTED BY THIS MOTION:

Upon review and having considered the agreement of the parties, the Court finds as follows:

The Court has proper jurisdiction and there are no procedural defects not waived by the parties. The parties' modification of the allocation of parenting rights and responsibilities is in the best interest of their minor child.

Based upon the above findings and the parties' agreement,

IT IS ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

The children shall attend school in the _____ district and/or

_____ MOTHER

_____ FATHER

shall be the residential parent for school purposes for:

_____ DOB ____/____/____

_____ DOB ____/____/____

_____ DOB ____/____/____

effective ____/____/____ and continuing as long as one parent resides in the district or until further court order.

No other terms of the shared parenting plan are modified at this time.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
