Subject: Medina County Domestic Relations Court Welcomes Volunteers

Judge Mary Kovack is pleased to announce the introduction of Medina County Domestic Relations Court's Blue Blazer Brigade, a volunteer bailiff program. This program offers people the opportunity to learn more about how the court functions and meet the people working at the historic Medina County Courthouse. The members of the Blue Blazer Brigade check in parties, call cases, and lead parties to their hearing rooms.

"Our volunteers are very happy to be able to help out," Judge Kovack said. "The feedback has been positive, and we invite anyone in the community who can offer time to join this unique opportunity."

A representative from the Court will be at the Medina County Volunteer Fair this Saturday, August 24, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Medina Library with applications and information regarding the Blue Blazer Brigade.

For more information about the Blue Blazer Brigade or to request an application, please contact Deputy Bailiff Timothy D. Anderson, Sr., or Magistrate John A. Mascolo at 330-725-9740.
