The parties were married in the State of _____, on the _____ day of _____, _____, and _____ child(ren) was/were born as issue of said marriage, namely:

_____.

(Children's names & birth dates)

The parties acknowledge and affirm that even though they are no longer married to each other, they do still dearly love their children and will cooperate to their fullest ability to share the responsibilities of parenting for their children.

The Parties have acknowledged that they have voluntarily entered into this Shared Parenting Plan, which the Court finds to be fair and equitable, and in the best interest of the minor children and each Party is satisfied with the terms and conditions contained in said Parenting Plan.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants between the parties, it is hereby ordered:

1. LEGAL AND PHYSICAL CARE OF THE CHILDREN

The parties shall share the physical and legal care of their minor children as herein provided. Each party acknowledges that the other is now and always has been a loving, caring parent whose responsibilities as a mother or father have always been fulfilled to the best of his/her ability.

a) SCHOOL DISTRICT

The child(ren) will attend school in the district where _____ (Petitioner-1 /Petitioner-2) resides.

d) OPTIONAL CHILD CARE

If at any time the residential parent is not able to care for the children, he/she shall offer the option to the other parent to care for the children in lieu of procuring a sitter for the children. If the non-residential parent is available and provides care, it does not change the residence or schedule of the children and it is not a substitution for other scheduled time.

e) TELEPHONE COMMUNICATIONS

Either parent shall have reasonable access to the children by telephone whenever they are with the other parent. Telephone calls should only be made during the children’s available times, i.e. calls should not be made after bedtime or during school hours. Children shall always be allowed to call the other parent as they desire.

Each parent shall give the other at least 30 days written notice of his/her intent to exercise this right. Written notice shall include the dates and proposed itinerary for the vacation. 2. THE ALLOCATION OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE MINOR CHILD(REN)

CHILD AND CASH MEDICAL SUPPORT

The Child Support order is effective _____ (enter date) and applies to the following child(ren):

FULL NAME OF CHILD	ADDRESS	DOB
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

- Plaintiff/Petitioner-1
- Defendant/Petitioner-2
- Other _____

is designated the OBLIGOR (the person who shall pay child and cash medical support).

- Plaintiff/Petitioner-1
- Defendant/Petitioner-2
- Other _____

is designated the OBLIGEE (the person who shall receive child and cash medical support).

1) The OBLIGOR shall pay the OBLIGEE child support in the amount of $_____ per month plus two percent (2%) processing charge.

This amounts to a _____% downward deviation upward deviation from the child support computation worksheet. The child support enforcement agency shall maintain the child support deviation for any future administrative recalculations.

2) The OBLIGOR shall pay cash medical support in the amount of $_____ per month plus two percent (2%) processing charge.

This amounts to a _____% downward deviation upward deviation from the cash medical support obligation. The child support enforcement agency shall maintain the cash medical support deviation for any future administrative recalculations.

3) The OBLIGOR shall pay support arrears in the amount of $_____ per month plus two percent (2%) processing charge.

4) For a total monthly obligation of $_____, plus two percent (2%) processing charge. (Child Support Computation Worksheet attached).

The amount(s) above represent(s) a deviation from the attached Child Support Computation Worksheet. Upon consideration of the factors forth in R.C. Sections R.C. 3119.22, 3119.23, 3119.231, 3119.303 and/or 3119.24, as applied to the facts of this case, the Court finds the child/cash medical support computation unjust, inappropriate and not in the child(ren)'s best interest. [R.C. 3119.22 and R.C. 3119.23]

Reasons for the child support deviation include:

Ninety (90) overnights: OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds ninety (90) overnights per calendar year. If OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds ninety (90) overnights per calendar year, the Court has considered whether to grant a deviation pursuant to R.C. 3119.22 and R.C. 3119.23(C). [R.C. 3119.231(A)].

One hundred forty-seven (147) overnights: OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds one hundred forty-seven (147) overnights per calendar year. If OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds one hundred forty-seven (147) overnights per calendar year, the Court has considered whether to grant a deviation pursuant to R.C. 3119.22 and R.C. 3119.23(C). [R.C. 3119.231(B)].

Other Reasons for the child/cash medical support deviation:

The amount above does not represent a deviation, although the OBLIGOR has one hundred forty-seven (147) overnights or more of parenting time. Upon consideration of R.C. Sections 3119.22, 3119.23, 3119.231 and 3119.24, as applied to the facts of this case, the Court finds that a deviation is not appropriate based upon the following:

All child support and spousal support under this order shall be withheld or deducted from the income or assets of the OBLIGOR pursuant to a withholding or deduction notice or appropriate Court order issued in accordance with Chapters 3119., 3121., 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code or a withdrawal directive issued pursuant to Sections 3123.24 to 3123.38 of the Revised Code and shall be forwarded to the OBLIGEE in accordance with Chapters 3119., 3121., and 3125. of the Revised Code. [R.C. 3121.27(A)]

All support should be paid through:

Ohio Child Support Payment Central (OCSPC)
P.O. Box 182372
Columbus, Ohio 43218-2372.

Nothing in this section shall preclude a person from notifying the agency that a reason for which a child support order should terminate is imminent. EXTRAORDINARY MEDICAL EXPENSES

In accordance with R.C. 3119.30 and/or 3119.32, the OBLIGOR shall pay _____% and the OBLIGEE shall pay _____% of the cost of the uninsured medical expenses incurred for a child during the calendar year, beyond the cash medical support amount owed by the parties during that year. Such expenses include unreimbursed medical, psychological, dental, orthodontia, optical, and prescription drug expenses, including co-payments and/or deductibles.

HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE

Select 1, 2, OR 3. Then select a, b, c OR d.

1. THE OBLIGEE SHALL PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE. The person who RECEIVES child support (the OBLIGEE) shall obtain or maintain health insurance coverage for the child(ren). The child support OBLIGEE is presumed to be the appropriate parent to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren) subject to the child support order, unless rebutted pursuant to R.C. 3119.30(B)(1).

Choose ONE of the following:

- a. The OBLIGEE has health insurance coverage in place for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost.
- b. The OBLIGEE has health insurance coverage in place for the child(ren) that is not reasonable in cost, but the OBLIGEE wishes to be named the health insurance obligor and provide coverage under division R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(a).
- c. The OBLIGEE can obtain health insurance coverage for the child(ren), through an employer or other source, which is reasonable in cost. For employer-based coverage, the Court has considered the length of time the OBLIGEE has worked with the employer and the stability of the insurance.
- d. The OBLIGEE can obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren), through an employer or other source, but which is not reasonable in cost. The Court finds that it is in the child(ren)'s best interest to order OBLIGEE to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren), even though the cost of coverage is more than five percent (5%) of his or her gross income. The Court further finds that ordering OBLIGEE to provide health insurance coverage does not place an undue financial burden on OBLIGEE. The Court's determination is based upon the following:

[R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(b)]

2. THE OBLIGOR SHALL PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE. The person who PAYS child support (the OBLIGOR) shall obtain or maintains health insurance coverage for the child(ren).

Choose ONE of the following:

a. The OBLIGOR already has health insurance coverage for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(1)(a)]

b. The OBLIGOR already has health insurance coverage in place for the child(ren) that is not reasonable in cost, but the OBLIGOR wishes to be named the health insurance obligor and provide coverage under division R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(a). [R.C. 3119.30(B)(1)(b)]

c. The OBLIGOR can obtain coverage for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost through an employer or other source. For employer-based coverage, the Court has considered the length of time the OBLIGOR has worked with the employer and the stability of the insurance. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(1)(c)]

d. The OBLIGOR can obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren), through an employer or other source, but which is not reasonable in cost. The Court finds that it is in the child(ren)'s best interest to order OBLIGOR to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren), even though the cost of coverage is more than five percent (5%) of his or her gross income. The Court further finds that ordering OBLIGOR to provide health insurance coverage does not place an undue financial burden on OBLIGOR. The Court's determination is based upon the following:

[R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(b)]

3. NEITHER PARTY SHALL PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE

Choose ONE of the following:

- a. Neither the OBLIGOR nor the OBLIGEE have private health insurance available at a reasonable cost.

If private health insurance becomes available to the OBLIGEE at a reasonable cost, the OBLIGEE shall obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) not later than thirty (30) days after it becomes available, and shall inform the child support enforcement agency when private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) has been obtained. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(2)]

If private health insurance becomes available to the OBLIGOR at a reasonable cost, the OBLIGOR shall inform the child support enforcement agency and may seek a modification from health insurance coverage from the court with respect to a court child support order. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(3)]

- b. The OBLIGEE is a non-parent individual or agency that has no duty to provide medical support. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(1)(d)]
- c. One or both parties has/have private health insurance coverage available at a reasonable cost, but the Court finds that ordering one or both parties to obtain such coverage is not in the child(ren)'s best interest because:

[R.C. 3119.302(A)(3)]

- d. One or both parties have/has private health insurance coverage available at a reasonable cost, but it is not accessible because primary care is not available within thirty miles and it is not customary in this geographic region to travel more than thirty miles for primary care OR because the child(ren) rely on public transportation and primary care is not available in this area via public transportation. [R.C. 3119.302(A)(4)].

CHILDREN WHO ARE COVERED: Within thirty (30) days of this Order, the person(s) ordered to provide private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) shall designate the child(ren) listed above as covered dependent(s) under any health insurance or health care policy, contract or plan. [R.C. 3119.32(C)]

RELEASE OF HEALTH INSURANCE INFORMATION: The employer of the person required to obtain private health insurance coverage shall release to the other parent, any person subject to an order issued pursuant to R.C. 3109.19 or the Child Support Enforcement Agency, on written request, any necessary information on the private health insurance coverage, including the name and address of the health insurance plan administrator and any policy, contract, or plan number, and shall otherwise comply with this section and any order or notice issued pursuant to this section. [R.C. 3119.32(E)]

NAME: _____
ADDRESS: _____
PHONE: _____

[R.C. 3119.32(B)]

HEALTH INSURANCE PAYMENTS TO PROVIDERS: The health insurer(s) referenced in this Order may continue making payments for medical, optical, hospital, dental, or prescription services directly to any health care provider in accordance with the applicable private health insurance policy, contract, or plan. [R.C. 3119.32(B)]

NOTICE REGARDING HEALTH INSURANCE CHANGES

If the person required to obtain private health care insurance coverage for the child(ren) subject to this child support order obtains new employment, the agency shall comply with the requirements of section 3319.34 of the Revised Code, which may result in the issuance of a notice requiring the new employer to take whatever action is necessary to enroll the child(ren) in private health care insurance coverage provided by the new employer, when insurance is not being provided by any other source. THE ALLOCATION OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES
FOR THE MINOR CHILD(REN)

CHILD AND CASH MEDICAL SUPPORT

The Child Support order is effective _____ (enter date) and applies to the following child(ren):

FULL NAME OF CHILD	ADDRESS	DOB

- Petitioner-1
- Petitioner-2
- Other _____

is designated the OBLIGOR (the person who shall pay child and cash medical support).

- Petitioner-1
- Petitioner-2
- Other _____

is designated the OBLIGEE (the person who shall receive child and cash medical support).

1) The OBLIGOR shall pay the OBLIGEE child support in the amount of $_____ per month plus two percent (2%) processing charge.

This amounts to a _____% downward deviation upward deviation from the child support computation worksheet. The child support enforcement agency shall maintain the child support deviation for any future administrative recalculations.

2) The OBLIGOR shall pay cash medical support in the amount of $_____ per month plus two percent (2%) processing charge.

This amounts to a _____% downward deviation upward deviation from the cash medical support obligation. The child support enforcement agency shall maintain the cash medical support deviation for any future administrative recalculations.

3) The OBLIGOR shall pay support arrears in the amount of $_____ per month plus two percent (2%) processing charge.

4) For a total monthly obligation of $_____, plus two percent (2%) processing charge. (Child Support Computation Worksheet attached).

The amount(s) above represent(s) a deviation from the attached Child Support Computation Worksheet. Upon consideration of the factors forth in R.C. Sections R.C. 3119.22, 3119.23, 3119.231, 3119.303 and/or 3119.24, as applied to the facts of this case, the Court finds the child/cash medical support computation unjust, inappropriate and not in the child(ren)'s best interest. [R.C. 3119.22 and R.C. 3119.23]

Reasons for the child support deviation include:

Ninety (90) overnights: OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds ninety (90) overnights per calendar year. If OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds ninety (90) overnights per calendar year, the Court has considered whether to grant a deviation pursuant to R.C. 3119.22 and R.C. 3119.23(C). [R.C. 3119.231(A)].

One hundred forty-seven (147) overnights: OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds one hundred forty-seven (147) overnights per calendar year. If OBLIGOR's parenting time exceeds one hundred forty-seven (147) overnights per calendar year, the Court has considered whether to grant a deviation pursuant to R.C. 3119.22 and R.C. 3119.23(C). [R.C. 3119.231(B)].

Other Reasons for the child/cash medical support deviation:

The amount above does not represent a deviation, although the OBLIGOR has one hundred forty-seven (147) overnights or more of parenting time. Upon consideration of R.C. Sections 3119.22, 3119.23, 3119.231 and 3119.24, as applied to the facts of this case, the Court finds that a deviation is not appropriate based upon the following:

All child support and spousal support under this order shall be withheld or deducted from the income or assets of the OBLIGOR pursuant to a withholding or deduction notice or appropriate Court order issued in accordance with Chapters 3119., 3121., 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code or a withdrawal directive issued pursuant to Sections 3123.24 to 3123.38 of the Revised Code and shall be forwarded to the OBLIGEE in accordance with Chapters 3119., 3121., and 3125. of the Revised Code. [R.C. 3121.27(A)]

All support should be paid through:

1. THE OBLIGEE SHALL PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE. The person who RECEIVES child support (the OBLIGEE) shall obtain or maintain health insurance coverage for the child(ren). The child support OBLIGEE is presumed to be the appropriate parent to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren) subject to the child support order, unless rebutted pursuant to R.C. 3119.30(B)(1).

Choose ONE of the following:

- a. The OBLIGEE has health insurance coverage in place for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost.
- b. The OBLIGEE has health insurance coverage in place for the child(ren) that is not reasonable in cost, but the OBLIGEE wishes to be named the health insurance obligor and provide coverage under division R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(a).
- c. The OBLIGEE can obtain health insurance coverage for the child(ren), through an employer or other source, which is reasonable in cost. For employer-based coverage, the Court has considered the length of time the OBLIGEE has worked with the employer and the stability of the insurance.
- d. The OBLIGEE can obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren), through an employer or other source, but which is not reasonable in cost. The Court finds that it is in the child(ren)'s best interest to order OBLIGEE to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren), even though the cost of coverage is more than five percent (5%) of his or her gross income. The Court further finds that ordering OBLIGEE to provide health insurance coverage does not place an undue financial burden on OBLIGEE. The Court's determination is based upon the following:

[R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(b)]

2. THE OBLIGOR SHALL PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE. The person who PAYS child support (the OBLIGOR) shall obtain or maintains health insurance coverage for the child(ren).

- c. The OBLIGOR can obtain coverage for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost through an employer or other source. For employer-based coverage, the Court has considered the length of time the OBLIGOR has worked with the employer and the stability of the insurance. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(1)(c)]
- d. The OBLIGOR can obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren), through an employer or other source, but which is not reasonable in cost. The Court finds that it is in the child(ren)'s best interest to order OBLIGOR to provide health insurance coverage for the child(ren), even though the cost of coverage is more than five percent (5%) of his or her gross income. The Court further finds that ordering OBLIGOR to provide health insurance coverage does not place an undue financial burden on OBLIGOR. The Court's determination is based upon the following:

[R.C. 3119.302(A)(2)(b)]

3. NEITHER PARTY SHALL PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE

Choose ONE of the following:

- a. Neither the OBLIGOR nor the OBLIGEE have private health insurance available at a reasonable cost.

If private health insurance becomes available to the OBLIGEE at a reasonable cost, the OBLIGEE shall obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) not later than thirty (30) days after it becomes available, and shall inform the child support enforcement agency when private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) has been obtained. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(2)]

If private health insurance becomes available to the OBLIGOR at a reasonable cost, the OBLIGOR shall inform the child support enforcement agency and may seek a modification from health insurance coverage from the court with respect to a court child support order. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(3)]

b. The OBLIGEE is a non-parent individual or agency that has no duty to provide medical support. [R.C. 3119.30(B)(1)(d)]

c. One or both parties has/have private health insurance coverage available at a reasonable cost, but the Court finds that ordering one or both parties to obtain such coverage is not in the child(ren)'s best interest because:

d. One or both parties have/has private health insurance coverage available at a reasonable cost, but it is not accessible because primary care is not available within thirty miles and it is not customary in this geographic region to travel more than thirty miles for primary care OR because the child(ren) rely on public transportation and primary care is not available in this area via public transportation. [R.C. 3119.302(A)(4)].

CHILDREN WHO ARE COVERED: Within thirty (30) days of this Order, the person(s) ordered to provide private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) shall designate the child(ren) listed above as covered dependent(s) under any health insurance or health care policy, contract or plan. PHONE: _____

[R.C. 3119.32(B)]

HEALTH INSURANCE PAYMENTS TO PROVIDERS: The health insurer(s) referenced in this Order may continue making payments for medical, optical, hospital, dental, or prescription services directly to any health care provider in accordance with the applicable private health insurance policy, contract, or plan. [R.C. 3119.32(B)]

NOTICE REGARDING HEALTH INSURANCE CHANGES

If the person required to obtain private health care insurance coverage for the child(ren) subject to this child support order obtains new employment, the agency shall comply with the requirements of section 3319.34 of the Revised Code, which may result in the issuance of a notice requiring the new employer to take whatever action is necessary to enroll the child(ren) in private health care insurance coverage provided by the new employer, when insurance is not being provided by any other source.
