Subject: Medina County Domestic Relations Court to resume Legal Resource Center program

Judge Mary Kovack is announcing that she will be resuming her Legal Resource Center program for limited hours effective immediately. The sessions will occur every other Thursday evening, with the first session being held on May 7, 2020 from 5:30pm – 7:30pm via videoconference by appointment only.

The Legal Resource Center will be held using GoToMeeting software which is available for free on desktop and mobile devices. Appointments can be scheduled by emailing Scott Newman at snewman@medinaco.org. As space is limited, priority will be given in the order emails are received.

Judge Kovack established the Legal Resource Center in 2006 as a place where people representing themselves can access legal forms, books, and other legal resources to guide them through the legal process. Volunteer lawyers staff the Legal Resource Center and answer procedural and technical questions. The Legal Resource Center does not provide, and is not a substitution for, legal advice.

For more information about the Legal Resource Center, or to schedule an appointment, please contact Daniel Maynard or Scott Newman at dmaynard@medinaco.org or snewman@medinaco.org.
